updayton is an initiative of DaytonCREATE, striving to spur economic growth within the region by attracting and retaining young creative talent.

We are committed to build a better Dayton by connecting young people to the city and engaging them in regional decision making.

Through fellowship, professional development, and the Young Creatives Summit, we strive to rebuild hope and pride in our region.

updayton on Facebook!

Are you one of our more than 750 members of our Facebook group?

Don't lose touch with updayton - become a fan our new page at www.facebook.com/updayton.today. The new page features tabs of our events, current photos, and up to the minute tweets on news that that's important to young creatives in the region. Our old group page will be retiring at the end of the month so act now to stay plugged in! Not connected with us yet on Facebook?

We welcome new fans too! <http://www.facebook.com/>

Young Creatives Unite on Meetup.com

In an effort to keep young creatives better connected to each other, updayton has launched a new Meetup site at <http://www.meetup.com/updayton/>. Sign up today (it's FREE) and become part of the community.

Through the site, you'll be able to find out and rsvp for Young Creatives functions throughout the region as well as suggest ideas of your own and get others to join you. It's a great way to meet new people and connect with other like-minded young creatives in the Dayton area. Registering for the site will also open door to many other niche groups on Meetup.com doing interesting things in the area, such as the Dayton Hikers, Dayton Working Mamas, or Team Green Dayton. See all groups in the Dayton region: <http://www.meetup.com/find/us/oh/dayton/>

Looking for Ways to be More Involved?

If you have been meaning to get involved in the Dayton community and want to be a part of a great organization- you should consider becoming an updayton Steering Committee member. If you are interested please contact Anna Hurley at hurleyak@notes.uidayton.edu.
